Numb. 8832.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 14, to Saturday March 18, 1748.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Publick Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody and expensive War, in which we were engaged against his most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty the King of Spain, by the Conclusion of a Just and Honourable Peace between us and his said most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty, upon such a Foundation as, by the Blessing of God, may prove effectual to procure a firm and lasting Tranquility to us and our Subjects; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that such great and publick Blessings do call for publick and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these his Mercies, be observed throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Tuesday the 25th Day of April next: And for the better and more orderly Solemnizing the same, we have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And we do strictly charge and command, that the said publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as we can justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at our Court at St. James's the 16th Day of March 1748. in the Twenty-second Year of our Reign.

St. James's, March 18.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Soak of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Marqueſs of Granby and Sir John Cuſt, Bart. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Albemarle, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Soak of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions.

Our Minds are fill'd with the moſt lively Senſe of your Majeſty's Regard, not only to this Kingdom, but to all Europe, by putting an End to an expenſive War, and procuring a General Peace.

We are highly ſenſible of the Concern your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare of your People, in ſecuring this ineſtimable Bleſſing; and acknowledge, with Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude, your Majeſty's Great Wiſdom in the Eſtabliſhment of the Tranquillity of Europe.

May that Providence which enabled your Majeſty to bring about this great Work, conſtantly attend your Majeſty and your Royal Family; and may your Majeſty long live to enjoy the Happineſs your Majeſty has, with the utmoſt Care and Prudence, procur'd for this Nation.

The following Addreſs of the High-Sheriff and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of and for the County Palatine of Cheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondeley: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of and for the County Palatine of Cheſter, aſſembled at the Aſſizes holden at Cheſter in and for the ſaid County, on Saturday the fourth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty eight,

Moſt humbly beg Leave, with the greateſt Sincerity and unfeigned Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe Kingdoms; and at the ſame Time to expreſs our moſt grateful Acknowledgments to your Majeſty, for putting a happy Period to the Calamities which unavoidably attend a War, however neceſſarily begun and carried on.

With the higheſt Gratitude we confeſs, Great Sir, that the pleaſing Proſpect which Peace affords us is owing to your ſteady Councels and unwearied Endeavours to promote the true Intereſt of this Nation. The invaluable Bleſſings of Peace, reſtored to Europe by your Influence, muſt fill the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects with unſpeakable Joy, as they may hope for an undiſturbed Poſſeſſion of them, under your moſt mild and auſpicious Government.

In this happy Situation we have nothing farther to wiſh, but that it may pleaſe the Almighty to prolong your Majeſty's Life and indulgent Reign over us, and to continue the Government of theſe Kingdoms in your illuſtrious Line to the lateſt Poſterity.

Dreſden, March 19, N. S. On Sunday laſt Count Perron, the Sardinian Miniſter at this Court, received an Expreſs from Turin, with Orders to repair immediately to England to reſide there as his Sardinian Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to that Court; and he will ſet out in about ten Days.

Hague, March 25, N. S. The Diſputes, which have ſubſiſted for ſome Time between the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company and the the chief Proprietors, concerning the Conditions on which the Poſt of Director and Governor-General of their Company is to be offer'd to the Prince Stadtholder, were decided Yeſterday in the Aſſembly of the States General, to the Satisfaction of the Proprietors, in Conſequence of the Report of the Committee that was appointed to enquire into that Affair. The States of Holland gave their Conſent laſt Friday to the extraordinary Taxes for the current Year, which are to be the ſame as were raiſed in 1748. The Prince Stadtholder is greatly mended in his Health; but her Royal Highneſs has had of late ſeveral Fits of the Ague. Count Bentheim, who was General of the Horſe in this Service, and Colonel of the Horſe Guards, died a few Days ago in an advanced Age.

St. James's, March 16.

This Day the Sieur Wall, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, March 7, 1748-9.

A PROPOSAL having been preſented unto His Majeſty, for the Eſtabliſhing a Civil Government in the Province of Nova Scotia in North America, as alſo for the better Peopling and Settling the ſaid Province, and extending and improving the Fiſhery thereof, by granting Lands within the ſame, and giving other Encouragements to ſuch of the Officers and Private Men lately diſmiſſed His Majeſty's Land and Sea Service, as ſhall be willing to ſettle in the ſaid Province; And His Majeſty having ſignified His Royal Approbation of the Purport of the ſaid Propoſals; The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations do, by His Majeſty's Commands, give Notice, That proper Encouragement will be given to ſuch of the Officers and Private Men lately diſmiſſed His Majeſty's Land and Sea Service, as are willing to accept of Grants of Land, and to ſettle with or without Families in the Province of Nova Scotia.

That Fifty Acres of Land will be granted in Fee Simple to every Private Soldier or Seaman, free from the Payment of any Quit-Rents or Taxes for the Term of Ten Years; at the Expiration whereof no Perſon to pay more than one Shilling per Annum for every fifty Acres ſo granted.

That a Grant of ten Acres, over and above the ſaid fifty Acres, will be made to each Private Soldier or Seaman having a Family, for every Perſon, including Women and Children, of which his Family ſhall conſiſt; and further Grants made to them on the like Conditions, as their Families ſhall increaſe, or in Proportion to their Abilities to cultivate the ſame.

That Eighty Acres, on like Conditions, will be granted to every Officer under the Rank of Enſign in the Land Service, and that of Lieutenant in the Sea Service, and to ſuch as have Families, fifteen Acres, over and above the ſaid eighty Acres, for every Perſon, of which their Families ſhall conſiſt.

That Two hundred Acres, on like Conditions, will be granted to every Enſign, Three hundred to every Lieutenant, Four hundred to every Captain, and Six hundred to every Officer above the Rank of Captain in the Land Service; as alſo the like Quantity of Four hundred Acres, and on the like Conditions, to every Lieutenant in the Sea Service, and Six hundred Acres to every Captain; and to ſuch of the above-mentioned Officers as have Families a further Grant of Thirty Acres will be made over and above their reſpective Quotas for every Perſon of which their Families ſhall conſiſt.

That the Lands will be parcelled out to the Settlers as ſoon as poſſible after their Arrival, and a Civil Government eſtabliſhed, whereby they will enjoy all the Liberties, Privileges and Immunities enjoyed by His Majeſty's Subjects in any other of the Colonies and Plantations in America under his Majeſty's Government; and proper Meaſures will alſo be taken for their Security and Protection.

That all ſuch as are willing to accept of the above Propoſals, ſhall, with their Families, be ſubſiſted during their Paſſage, as alſo for the Space of Twelve Months after their Arrival.

That they ſhall be furniſhed with Arms and Ammunition, as far as will be judged neceſſary for their Defence, with a proper Quantity of Materials and Utenſils for Huſbandry, clearing and cultivating their Lands, erecting Habitations, carrying on the Fiſhery, and ſuch other Purpoſes as ſhall be neceſſary for their Support.

That all ſuch Perſons as are deſirous of engaging in the above Settlement, do tranſmit by Letter, or perſonally give in their Names, ſignifying in what Regiment or Company, or on board what Ship they laſt ſerved, and, if they have Families, what Number of Perſons belonging to ſuch Family they intend to carry with them, diſtinguiſhing the Age and Quality of each Perſon, to any of the following Officers appointed to receive and enter the ſame in Books open for that Purpoſe, viz.

John Pownall, Eſq; Solicitor and Clerk of the Reports to the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations at their Office at Whitehall.

John Ruſſel, Eſq; Commiſſioner of His Majeſty's Navy at Portſmouth.

Philip Vanbrugh, Eſq; Commiſſioner of His Majeſty's Navy at Plymouth.

That proper Notice will be given of the ſaid Books being cloſed ſo ſoon as the intended Number ſhall be compleated, or at lateſt on the 7th of April.

It is propoſed, that the Tranſports ſhall be ready to receive ſuch Perſons on board on the 10th of April, and be ready to ſail on the 20th, and that timely Notice will be given of the Place or Places, to which ſuch Perſons are to repair in order to embark.

That for the Benefit of the Settlement, the ſame Conditions which are propoſed to Private Soldiers or Seamen, ſhall likewiſe be granted to Carpenters, Shipwrights, Smiths, Maſons, Joyners, Brickmakers, Bricklayers, and all other Artificers neceſſary in Building or Husbandry, not being Private Soldiers or Seamen.

That the ſame Conditions as are propoſed to thoſe who have ſerved in the Capacity of Enſign, ſhall extend to all Surgeons, whether they have been in

His

His Majeſty's Service or not, upon their producing proper Certificates of their being duly qualified.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

Thos. Hill, Secretary.

London, Jan. 16, 1748.

General-Poſt-Office.

Whereas the Poſt Boy bringing the Swaffham Mail, from that Town to Thetford, on Saturday laſt, the 14*th Inſtant, was attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Bodney, between Swaffham and Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, by two Highwaymen on Horſeback, who carried off the Letters contained in the* Rougham, Holkham, Wells and Fakenham Bags, and alſo the Letters from ſeveral other Towns and Places in the Thetford Branch: The Perſons who committed this Robbery are deſcribed to be both ſtout Men, and one of them was mounted on a light grey Horſe, and the other on a Brown one. He on the Grey Horſe was dreſſed in a Gold-laced light colour'd Waiſtcoat with a Great Coat over the ſame, and he on the Brown one, wore a compleat Soldier's Dreſs, with Gold Button Holes.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſons, or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon, or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or ſhall make Diſcovery, whereby the Perſons, or either of them, who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of both, or either of the ſaid Robbers, be intituled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
